O, FORTUNE

O Fortuna
Fortunae plango vulnere

Fate and fortune – the circle of life ...
The wounds of fortune are bemoaned...

SPRINGTIME

Veris laeta facies
Omnia sol temperata
Ecce gratum

Spring turns its face to the world...
The sun warms all, bringing life...
Behold, the pleasantness of spring's joy...

ON THE LAWN

Tanz
Floret silva nobilis
Chrumer, gip die varwe mir
Reie: Swaz hie gat umbe
Were diu werlt alle min

A dance
Flowering, the woods are flowering...
Love blooms as she tries to elicit man's gaze
Flirtation during a round dance
Were all the world mine...

IN THE TAVERN

Estuans interius
Olim lacus colueram
Ego sum abbas
In taberna quando sumus

A man sings and dances in a drunken toast
A swan roasts, telling its story of woe
The abbot gets up and shares his story
Patrons sing a rousing drinking song

THE COURT OF LOVE

Amor volat undique
Dies, nox, et omnia
Stetit puella
Circa mea pectora
Si puer cum puella
Veni, veni, venias
In trutina
Tempus est iocundum
Dulcissime
Ave formosissima

Cupid flies about, blessing various couples
The man pines for love
A girl, radiant, stands in a red scarf
The man sings of his desire
The choir sings of love
The man speaks of the woman's beauty
The woman considers her path
Springtime and love
She offers herself wholly
There is great rejoicing

O, FORTUNE

O Fortuna

We return to the circle and are reminded that the wheel of fate and fortune continues to turn.
