NOTABLES

We are the arms and legs that get the work done. We are the minds and bodies that conceive and institute ideas. We are the heart that pumps money, time and toil into our organization.

ALLOW US TO INTRODUCE OURSELVES

WHO ARE WE?

We are women, men and even children.
We are young and we are old. We are music lovers and concert-goers. We are new to town and we are lifelong residents.
We are everyone.

WHAT DO WE DO?

We usher concert-goers to their seats, help with coat check, and sell concessions at intermission. We host musicians, stuff envelopes, make phone calls, raise money, plan cultural trips, organize chamber concerts and sponsor a dinner for the musicians between Philharmonic Christmas concerts. We are the workers behind the scenes.

WHY DO WE DO IT ALL?

We support the mission of the Philharmonic; we donate our time and talents; and we underwrite
the Notables Flute Chair.

DO IT FOR YOURSELF

Share your talents with others; learn new skills from someone else. Sharpen your leadership/organizational skills in the activities that interest you. Your work always will be appreciated. Your time never will be wasted.

DO IT FOR YOUR FRIENDSHIPS

Working with us is a great way to meet new people, or to work closely with those you already know and like. We're an effective network for personal or business purposes.

DO IT FOR YOUR CHILDREN

Be a role model. By your actions, show how the spirit of volunteerism works to get things done; and experience with them the excitement of a live symphony performance.

DO IT FOR YOUR COMMUNITY

Our national award-winning orchestra has put Columbus, Indiana on the cultural map, winning local support, statewide recognition and national awards.
