FAURÉ REQUIEM featuring the Philharmonic Chorus & Columbus Indiana Children's Choir

SATURDAY, MARCH 6, 2021 ★ FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH ★ 7:30 PM

Fauré's Requiem has long been one of the most beloved of all sacred works, one that the composer described as being "as gentle as I am myself," with a score that is uniquely consoling. This lush work is paired with Forrest's Jubilate Deo [O Be Joyful in the Lord], a stirring new popular work about "all lands" in a wide variety of international musical styles.

LOVE TRIANGLE featuring Sean Chen, piano

SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 2021 ★ CNHS ERNE AUDITORIUM ★ 7:30 PM

A tragically romantic love triangle: Clara & Robert Schumann and Johannes Brahms. Following Robert's untimely death, his wife Clara and Johannes remained close. Just how close remains unknown to this day. Hear passionate works by the men who loved her, along with Clara's inspired piano music.

SIBELIUS & RACH 2 featuring Di Wu, piano

SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 2021 ★ CNHS ERNE AUDITORIUM ★ 7:30 PM

Mozart tickles our ears! Our concert opens with his sparkling wedding overture followed by Sibelius's Finnish Independence Symphony. Sibelius 2 is filled with longings for freedom, and his expression of the triumph of liberty clearly reflects Beethoven's 9th. Displaying tenderness, lyricism, power, and a charming charisma, Di Wu performs Rach 2, considered by many to be the world's favorite piano concerto.
